

Miss Tabby

My, how the world has changed for me over the past summer! I once was a family cat living comfortably enough in an apartment in Watervliet. One morning, my family let me out for my daily stroll and when I came home, there was nobody to let me back in! Of course, I waited and waited for them. Didn't they know I was expecting kittens?

It wasn't long before I realized I was totally on my own in this world. I had my babies, three beautiful kittens, in a cardboard box under a shrub outside my old apartment. The new people who moved in wouldn't let me come into their home, but they were kind enough to give me the cardboard box. It was a

One day, more changes! Some people came and took our box away. They took my little girl into one of the apartments and the rest of us were brought to a foster home in the country. There was plenty of good food, veterinary care and a comfortable, safe place for us to sleep and play. My boys, Elvis and Little Richard, are teenagers now. They're bright and handsome and just like their father, they have the softest, shiniest coats! Soon they'll be going off to their own forever homes. I feel like I did my job as a mother. I'm spayed now and have all my shots. I think I'd like to find a quiet home of my own with someone who will love me enough to keep me forever. Is that someone YOU?
